Race Judicata® 2020 Route Description

The runners will start on the middle path between the South Field house and Stockton Drive, approximately just north of the Fieldhouse. The runners will head south on the path, staying to the left around the circle island and head around the softball fields, under the pedestrian underpass and across Cannon Drive using the first crosswalk. The runners will head north on the path, go under the Fullerton underpass and stay to the right to be on the eastern path. The runners will proceed north on the asphalt path until they reach the sidewalk intersection adjacent to Diversey Ave where they turn and head south on the path running parallel to the one they just ran, go under the Fullerton underpass and head south on the asphalt path until they reach the first crosswalk going over Cannon drive south of Grant's Statue. They will cross Cannon Drive and head west and then south on the path and finish just north of the South Fieldhouse.
